Fat Men In Skirts October 8-11

An eccentric and darkly funny comedy that explores human fragility under extreme conditions. Shriill, shocking and shockingly funny, Fat Men in Skirts is characterized by off-Broadway audacity that makes for disturbing and exhilarating theatrical entertainment. Nicky Silver is recognized as one of the leading comic voices of his generation. Produced and acted by the Theatre Rep class.

October 8-10 7:30 pm; October 11 2 pm
Wells Theater
directed by Kayt Drost

Nov. 19-21

A Christmas Carol

Once again, Crimson Masque teams up with The Buchanan Center for the Arts to present a large-scale community production of the holiday classic.

Nov. 19-21 7:30 pm; Nov. 21 2 pm
Wells Theater

NOT PART OF SEASON TICKET directed by Bill Wallace

Cherry Docs February 12-14

Danny is a lawyer, a self-styled and pretty self-satisfied liberal, and a Jew—though a pretty secularized and casual one. He's been assigned, as a public defender, the case of Mike, a neo-Nazi skinhead who has kicked a middle-aged Asian man to death with his red Doc Marten boots ("Cherry Docs").

Feb. 12-13 7:30 pm; Feb. 14 2 pm
Wells Theater
directed by Ken Yeater

Feb. 25-28 The Homecoming

This Tony-Award-winning drama has been the subject of extensive critical debate for over forty years. The Homecoming raises basic philosophical questions about the nature of so-called “family values” and the “meaning” of “love” among family members.

Feb. 25-27 7:30 pm; Feb 28 2 pm
W.I.T. Theater
directed by Doug Rankin

The Demon Barber of Fleet Street

Sweeney Todd

The musical tells the story of Benjamin Barker, alias Sweeney Todd, who returns to London after 15 years transportation on false charges. When he learns from his former landlady, Mrs. Lovett, that his wife poisoned herself after being raped by the judge who wrongly transported him, he vows revenge.

Apr. 15-17 7:30 pm; Apr. 18 2 pm
Wells Theater
directed by Janeve West
