Dear Colleague:

Ave!

We are pleased to announce that the 10th Annual NLU/ICC Latin Pedagogy Workshop will be held July 7, 8, 9 & 10, 2003, at National-Louis University in Evanston, Illinois. This workshop will focus on topics of interest to novice and experienced teachers, as well as to promising undergraduate and graduate students of the Classics. National-Louis University is offering graduate workshop credit (1 or 2 credit hour option) for completion of the workshop. These graduate workshop hours may be converted to CEU's or CPDU's for those pursuing certificate renewal (1 credit = 3 CEU's; 1 credit = 15 CPDU's).

Find enclosed the following information regarding the workshop:

1. A publicity sheet (on back of this letter).
2. A schedule of sessions.
3. A workshop fact sheet (on back of schedule).
4. Registration information.

This year's workshop continues to be designed to meet the needs and interests of new and veteran participants alike. Participants new to the workshop should plan on enrolling in the "1st-Time Participants" level of the curriculum. Returning participants should enroll at the "Returning" level. If you take the workshop for credit more than once, your transcript will reflect the completion of courses of varied content. You may take the returning level more than once; topics covered will be different.

The Workshop Registration Information and Procedure sheet contains information regarding the earning of NLU graduate credit for the workshop and the audit course option as well as workshop fees. Please follow directions on this sheet to register for the workshop. If you have further questions, please contact us for information (Rickie Crown 847-475-1100, ext. 2240; Mary Ann Beatty 847-526-2372.)

We are looking forward to meeting you and sharing insights. Hope you'll be able to join us.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

Mary Ann Beatty
