This program is open to any MC student, contingent upon instructors’ approval, but there is a limit of twenty participants. Students interested in this program should register for EDUC274 or ENGL274 for the Spring Semester of 2005. Students will earn three semester hours of credit which will be applied to the spring course load and total hours.

Grading:

Your grade in this course will be based upon attendance, a journal of the entire experience and the writing of a children’s story.

Participant Comments:

Lacy Goodpasture—“I would tell the students at Monmouth how at home I felt at the center and with my host family. The center is so comfortable and you can’t sit anywhere without reaching out, grabbing a book and reading it. There is so much to see and do that you aren’t going to get bored.”

Registration:

May 16—June 6, 2005
A three-week spring program for Monmouth College Students

For the 2005 program, students will be accompanied by a full-time Monmouth College faculty member:
Melinda Grimm, Education Department
Phone: (309) 457-2340 or 2341
Fax: (309) 457-2310
E-mail: mgrimmm@monm.edu
This coming year classes will offer guest lectures by writers and publishers, as well as a presentation about Storysacks. Activities will include a trip to Oxford and a tour through Oxford University Press, as well as visits to local schools which differ in size and approach. Weekends are generally left free for individual travel. Students stay with host families in a bed and breakfast arrangement.

Cost - $3,295.00

Includes:
- Tuition and fees at University of Reading
- Chicago - London travel arrangements
- Home stay accommodations (including daily breakfast and up to six dinners per week)
- Administrative charge (school and publishing house visits along with transports)
- Insurance
- Travel within the UK (including pickup from airport and ground transportation for all formal program activities)
- Coach trip to Stonehenge, Salisbury and Stratford
- Theatre tickets to a play in London

Extras:
- Home to O’Hare travel arrangements
- Any non-program travel during the week or weekends
- Personal purchases
- All lunches and some dinners

Other Details
- $700 of the program fee is non-refundable if the course is dropped after January 24, 2005
- If you are registered for more than 18 semester hours (including this program), you will be charged additional tuition at $645 per semester hour for each hour in excess of 18.
- You have the option of paying your entire balance or you may sign up for the payment plan through FACTS.
- It is your responsibility to notify the Financial Aid Office that you will be participating in this program. The office determines financial aid eligibility.
- If you have any financial questions, please contact the Business Office at (309) 457-2124.

Travel Information

Departure: from Chicago O’Hare, Monday, May 16, 2005

Return: from London Heathrow, Monday, June 6, 2005