From the Clipboard of the Director

We wish to dedicate this production of A Thurber Carnival to Mrs. Earl Dunlop. Without her generous gift the repainting of our theatre interior would not have been possible.

Crimson Masque has just become a member of the American National Theatre Academy and will, as a result, offer a number of new services to its members. Some of these are discount prices on theatre books, lecture and placement services, free publications on all aspects of theatre, and a special lounge and ticket service for members visiting New York.

More entertainment is forthcoming in the month of June. The "theatre of the absurd" will receive an airing on May 22nd and 23rd in a student directed production of Samuel Beckett's Endgame. Also scheduled is a production of The Medium, a one act opera by Menotti. This production is now set for May 5th and 6th.
