FROM THE CLIPBOARD OF THE DIRECTOR

As we conclude another season we would like to pause for a moment to thank you, our audience, for your support and encouragement. While our primary goal in Educational Theatre is the growth of our students, we also recognize that what we call "theatre" can't happen without the live actor making contact with a live audience.

This past year students have not only acted and worked on technical crews, but also have directed (Kerry Bean and Wes Cummins - You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown) and designed (Steve Borik - Ten Little Indians) major productions. More than 70 students have been involved in Crimson Masque productions this past season, and we congratulate them for their enthusiasm and dedication.

We in the theatre have the good fortune to be able to share our endeavors in public presentations. We are pleased that you have joined us this evening and we hope that you enjoy the results of our preparation.

Ten little Indian boys went out to dine;
One choked his little self and then there were nine.
Nine little Indian boys sat up very late;
One overslept himself and then there were eight.
Eight little Indian boys travelling in Devon;
One got left behind and then there were seven.
Seven little Indian boys chopping up sticks;
One chopped himself in halves and then there were six.
Six little Indian boys playing with a hive;
A bumblebee stung one and then there were five.
Five little Indian boys going in for law;
One got in Chancery and then there were four.
Four little Indian boys walking in the zoo;
A big bear hugged one and then there were two.
Two little Indian boys sitting in the sun;
One got frizzled up and then there was one.
One little Indian boy left all alone;
He went and hanged himself and then there were none.
