CAST MEMBERS:

Please initial next to your name—or as closely to your name as you can in the margins—so that I know you accept the role. Please do this every time your name appears on the cast list.

Our first rehearsal in Tuesday October 6 from 7:00pm- 8:30pm

The full cast is called.

Location: Wells Theatre

A full rehearsal schedule will be distributed at that time.

One important date that I need to give right now:

Friday October 9, from 6:00pm- 9:00pm

Clara, Frank, Mother, Father, Aunt Harriet, Mickey, Godfather Dross, Party Guests

Location: Wells Theatre

At this rehearsal we will be choreographing the opening sequence. Come ready to move!

*If you do not attend this rehearsal, you will not be in the opening number.
It was not listed as a conflict on anyone's sheet, so there should not be any issues. Thank you!

A NOTE OF THANKS...

To all who auditioned,
Your time, talents, and willingness to participate in both the cold readings and the dance portions of the audition are greatly appreciated. If you were not cast in this production, fear not! The Monmouth College Department of Theatre will hold auditions for The Rover in the spring semester, and we will have 4 or 5 shows lined up for next year! Just because a role was not right for you this time does not mean that a role won't be right for you in the future. Keep auditioning!

One word of advice that will greatly assist your chances of being cast:
Be available for evening rehearsals during the week. 😊

Again, I extend to you my thanks!

Wish best wishes,
Dr. V
